6. Correspondence

- Letter from CCBC – apply for business rate relief – Sadie to apply
- Email from Clare anna (London rock partners) Regarding Hilton Garden Inn Snowdonia – Explaining why they took on the short-term accommodation for the Asylum seekers. They felt it was the right thing to do and that it has been taken over by the home office. The home office has provided security and the home office should be the main point of contact.

- Welsh air ambulance requesting a donation – Discussed and everyone agreed that we will wait for the donation request from Ty Gobaith and then decide how much we will give each looking to give Ty Gobaith more as they are a local charity.
- Letter from Natural resources Wales regarding Tan Lan Embankment flood risk email given if we require any further information tan.lan@grasshopper -comms.co.uk phone number 01492 701381. They have had drop in events, but these dates were before this meeting one on the 30th of November 2022 and another on 1st December 2022 – Sadie to email checking if they will have any future events.

7.Planning Application – none

8.Cllr Beech proposes that we renovate or replace the local cenotaph – Sheena has noticed a few cracks and letters missing on the cenotaph. Sheena looking at a few quotes and getting back to us.

Any other business

- Sheena confirmed Gwyll Dolgarrog Date – 23rd April 12pm -4pm it will be held down at adventure parc snowdonia car park. Any locals wishing to have a stall will get the stall free of charge.
- Radon Wales – Letter regarding quarterly or annually inspections these come at a cost so as its only just been fitted we will be leaving this for a while
- Discussed second home council tax rates set to rise 100% this will hopefully allow for first time buyers to step on to the property letter with less people buying second homes.

Next meeting – 9th January 2022 6.30pm proposed
