24/0104 County and Borough Council Updates

Councillor Wells let the Parish council know that if they would like the speed limit changing on the corner of Stanton Lane and Browns Lane then the Parish needs to write to county Cllr Cottee. It was AGREED that the Clerk will write to Cllr Cottee to request this speed limit change. Cllr Wells also let Cllrs know that the canopy that has been erected at the carwash on Melton Road, needs to have retrospective planning applied for.

Councillor Inglis let the Parish know that Rushcliffe Borough Council are currently doing a public consultation on smokeless fuels, and he urged everyone to try and fill the survey in. Furthermore, Cllr Inglis reported that rural crime is on the up at the moment and encouraged everyone to keep their eyes open. If they see anything unusual, out of the ordinary or suspicious no matter how small then to either report it to the police on either 999 if the crime is currently taking place or 101.
