6.2	PLANNING Mr Craig Smith who had commenced the development at the Public Institute asked about the community council's letter indicating that the building was not a listed building and that the community council had indicated that the planning should take action on this by seeking to reprimand the developer. Mr C Smith went onto advise that he had been advised by the planning department that he did not need planning permission as it was already in place. Some discussion on this took place and Chair advised Mr Smith that it was raised at our previous meeting how work could be done and a planning application had just been submitted. CC secretary will writew to SLC planning for clarification on this matter. Mr C Smith advised anyone who wished to see what he had done in the Institute could visit on 6th December. Chair advised that Keppie had submitted their application which was a follow up to the pre planning consultation exercise that they had carried out. The proposal fell in line with the community council's submission on the local plan regard village development and that any member of the public could lodge an objection to it.	Sect.
