

The Ramblers - St Andrews & N.E. Fife Group

Thirteen Ramblers assembled at Luthrie for a 6.5-mile walk and ascent of Norman's Law in North Fife on a blustery but pleasantly warm day at the beginning of August. We headed along the track towards Carphin Estate and then followed a grass path leading us gradually uphill. With the Law now in sight we opted to stop for refreshments to prepare us for the ascent. The gusting wind presented quite a challenge as we made our way up the exposed path but we were thankful that the spits of rain did not develop into anything heavier. On reaching the summit we saw rain-laden clouds swirling menacingly towards us from Perth, so we lingered just long enough to admire the views over the Tay to the north and the Lomonds to the south, and to gather everyone together for a group photograph (your correspondent was heard to declare 'herding cats' during this exercise) before beginning our descent to the woodland below. Glad to reach the shelter of the trees we settled for our lunch break around
