

The Ramblers - St Andrews & N.E. Fife Group

Five regulars met at Kemback on a crisp and sunny Wednesday morning in mid-January for a 4-mile walk at Kemback Wood. The frosty weather was in our favour as the tracks which had been very muddy on the recce the previous week were now quite firm underfoot. We followed a succession of sheltered woodland paths, enjoying lovely views over the surrounding countryside. We were all in 'leisurely' mode and so we agreed to forego the ascent of Clatto Hill on this occasion; and we also opted for the more gently descending path back into Kemback, rather than taking Jenny's Steps. It's good to take it easy sometimes! A very pleasant walk was rounded off perfectly with excellent refreshments at Clayton restaurant.
