TREE – NYCC

NYCC are to remove a Cherry tree from Carr Lane/Long Lane triangle as it had been planted without a licence and permission would not have been given for this location. As NYCC do not know who planted it the parish council was offered the tree to plant in parish council land. Members agreed to this and will plant it in Lodge Field.

RESOLVED: That the above information be agreed. 25/22

WILDFLOWERS

RESOLVED: That Cllr Phillips will purchase £60 worth of wild flower seeds and scatter at the entrance to Tara Fields and Derwent Green river bank. 26/22

CHRISTMAS TREES

RESOLVED: That the council will provide 8 more trees and lights for Main Street. Cllr Phillips will advise the clerk where these trees are required. 27/22

QUEENS PLATINUM JUBILEE

Legacy Projects

Cllr Rowell circulated a list of ideas for a legacy for the jubilee. It was agreed that a community discussion would be required. The clerk suggested that this could be incorporated in the next Annual Parish Meeting. This was agreed and the date will be Saturday 23 April in the Village Hall.

RESOLVED: That the above decision be agreed. 28/22

Yorkshire Countrywomen Association

The YCA asked if they could plant a tree in the parish for the Queens Platinum Jubilee. Members agreed to this request and suggested a Walnut tree in Lodge Field. The clerk will advise the association.

RESOLVED: That the above information and decision was agreed. 29/22

FORGE VALLEY – SPEED RESTRICTION

Cllr Rowell circulated proposals relating to the above.
Cllr Jeffels will discuss this also with the Chief Constable.
