Visitors:

We welcome visitors to our classes and whilst the first class is free for all who have not Scottish country danced before, visitors will be charged £8 per class attended. If, however, they are members of another RSCDS Branch (or a RSCDS Society only member) then the following applies:

- A visitor to the area who is a RSCDS Member but who is not a member of Glasgow Branch may visit a class up to twice in a block of 10 classes and pay the Glasgow Member's class fee.
- If they wish to dance a 3rd time, or more, they must pay the Associate Membership fee to be able to pay the Member's class fee for each of the rest of the classes they attend that block, otherwise they pay non Member's class fee for each of the rest of the classes they attend.

Note: paying Associate Membership fee also means you can then pay Member's class fee for any Glasgow Branch classes attended in the rest of the Membership Year (1 July – 30 June following year).
