Editorial

As we go to press for the Christmas edition, the village is beginning to look very festive with an array of lights and decorations. There are also some very impressive wreaths.

Thank you to everyone taking part in the Window Wander and to everyone who has organised and supported recent events.

It is lovely to see people coming together to enjoy some fun in these difficult times. Remember to send in your photographs throughout the year so we can keep a record of activity in the village.

A big thank you to all the contributors, advertisers and our hardy band of distributors who make the magazine possible.

I would also like to give a big shout out to Peter, who continues to guide and steer the production of the Village Voice.

Wishing you all a very merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

Joanne Parker
Editor

Have you got any news to share?

Please keep the stories coming in; photos, in particular, are always appreciated. If you have something to submit but can't send us a digital file, a handwritten piece is no problem.

Advertisement rates

If you have a service to offer or you are a tradesman, remember an advert in this newsletter reaches every household in the village and represents an economical way to promote your business.

WOLDS WANDERERS

Meeting at Bainton on Remembrance Sunday, we gathered in time to observe the two-minute silence and then twelve of us set off on this old favourite. Following the lane past the church to Neswick, then right at the junction we were soon into open countryside with wide views all around. A slight incline to "Brackenber" bridge and we were over the site of the old railway line to Middleton. Continuing up the lane to the Burn Butts junction, the senior contingent (including Bob at 93!) left us to take the green lane short cut back to Bainton. The rest of us took the left turn to Burn Butts to pick up the footpath leading down to Cawkeld, finding a lunch spot en route. Passing Wedding Wood, we picked up the Minster Way at Bracken (photo above thanks to Ann), following a steady incline and gaining ever-widening views across the lower wolds. Finally, we entered the wooded green lane, full of Autumn colour (photo left thanks to Barbara), to Bainton. Only one walk this time as the next one won't make the earlier deadline which is brought forward in time for a Christmas issue.

Cemetery railings

A skilled team of volunteers has cleared the scrappy and gappy hedge and replaced it with this smart set of railings purchased by the parish council. Together with the brick wall rebuilt last year, they have made a very tidy job enhancing the cemetery and we should all be extremely grateful to them. The gates are currently away for refurbishment and will be reinstated soon.

Decorating our Christmas Tree!

What an exciting morning we had last week, as our school's Christmas tree was delivered! We each got the chance to add a bauble to the tree and if we do say so ourselves, it looks beautiful. This has marked the beginning of some very fun festive celebrations for us all and we are very excited for Christmas now!

From the school website

Christmas is always one of the busiest times of the year in school and also one of the most enjoyable. The children have taken part in Christmas parties, Christmas sing-a-longs and Christmas productions – they are all so excited. We wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Mature Mayhem

Although our numbers vary from week to week, I think it is safe to say we all enjoy our time spent at Mature Mayhem – a time to socialise, do some gentle exercises and enjoy ourselves. We have had a little more interest shown in recent weeks and we hope these people will become regulars. Newcomers are always welcome.

As Christmas Day falls on a Saturday, it has been decided not to have meetings on the 24th or 31st December.

We would like to wish everyone a safe and happy Christmas and all the best in the New Year.

We hope to see you on Friday 7 January.

Paperback Book Swap

This is held at the same time as Mature Mayhem – every Friday in the Village Hall from 2pm to 4pm.

History Group

At our November meeting which is our last of 2021 we held our AGM.

Officers (chair, secretary, treasurer) are to remain the same. The Program for 2022 will be revealed at the January meeting and subs to remain the same.

After the official bits we had a speaker from the village Joanne Robinson.

She talked about how she came to start writing, from when she was at school and entering competitions to the present time writing for a publisher. She has several pseudonyms depending on the genre or age group she is writing for and also writes alongside another writer co-producing stories. She writes for pleasure and often sets her story in an area she has been to.

It was a very enjoyable evening so thank you again to Joanne.

Thanks to Joan for the buffet and help with this report, as I was away on the night of the meeting as I had just become a first time Grandma! And was needed elsewhere.

Thanks to Joy for being Chair and Secretary on the night, all help much appreciated.

Our next meeting is Thursday 20th January at 7.30 and we have a speaker on Yorkshire Dialect-always an enjoyable night.

Best wishes to everyone for Christmas and the New Year.

Anne, Joy and Joan

Hello fellow Frodites.

From Rob Andrew, 01262 488 640.

Things are better than they were last year. HOWEVER; there is one constant between last year and this; the scammers and thieves are still hard at work. One of their most profitable times of the year is the run up to Christmas.

Please remember the thing I keep banging on about every year! Don't leave your Christmas presents on view OR under the tree for the thieves to observe through your windows during the day, and please close your curtains before you go to bed, upstairs and downstairs too.

Please note that some house insurance policies do not include Christmas, birthday or wedding presents if they are on show in the house, i.e. those insurance companies seem to want all presents to be safely tucked away in cupboards or drawers.

I apologise if I seem to be painting a very dark picture here, but I would hate that someone's Christmas was ruined because I forgot to "bang on" about being vigilant.

Also, every year I mention about the shopping you put into your cars, (not that it looks as if we will be able to buy many presents at the moment due to the supposed shortages that the media are telling us about in the supermarkets and other shops, due to the lack of lorry drivers, the BREXIT or the man in the moon.

When you put your shopping into your car, please put it in the boot; if you have no boot, or no space left in there, put the goods into the passenger compartment, try to cover them as much as possible.

Wishing all of you a very happy merry Christmas and happy, prosperous and a healthier and hopefully a Corona virus free New Year.

From all members of the Neighbourhood watch committee of North Frodingham, and myself
