To members of the Council.

You are hereby invited to attend a meeting of North Frodingham Parish Council at the Village Hall on Monday 9th March 2020 at 7.30pm to transact the following business.

Paul Wright
Clerk to the Council

AGENDA

- 1/. Apologies for absence.
- 2/. Consideration and Approval of Minutes of meeting held on 10th February 2020.
- 3/. Declaration of pecuniary and non-pecuniary interests.
- 4/. Ward Councillors Update.
- 5/. Matters arising:
 - (a) From the January minutes:
- 6/. Administration:
 - (a) To receive a report from clerk.
 - (b) To receive a Social Centre report from Cllr. Greaves.
 - (c) To further discuss and update regarding dog fouling in village. ERYC Engineer has supported the proposed bin in Main Street opposite Blue Post Pub but will not support the Mount Pleasant proposal because of nearby bins and lack of footfall. The stencil has been located but is in poor condition. What further action is necessary at this stage?
 - (d) To receive update from Emergency Planning Committee. To resolve whether to accept Level 2 plan and purchase necessary equipment.
 - (e) To receive update from Village Improvement Committee. Consider proposal by Cllr Silcock to hold village walkabouts to gain ideas for village improvement.
 - (f) To consider and resolve what action to take regarding the allotment.
 - (g) To consider and adopt Document Retention Policy to assist in the management of Parish Council personal data.
 - (h) To resolve to obtain membership of East Riding and North Lincolnshire Local Council Association (ERNLLCA). It offers advice and training on all matters relating to Local Councils and gives us access to all policies and documents used nationally by National Association of Local Councils (NALC). It also gives us access to legal advice from NALC solicitors. The cost of membership is £402 per annum.
 - (i) To consider action regarding vehicles cutting the corner of Grange Road causing deep ruts to roadside.

- (j) To consider application from PTFA, a charity, for a donation of £70 towards the purchase of Easter eggs for use in an Easter Egg Hunt in the village on Sunday 5th April 2020. Last year the event raised £500 for the school.
- (k) To consider and resolve to bind the 2015-2019 Parish Council Minutes into book form for archival purposes. We are obliged to keep minutes as archives and have bound minutes since 1894.
