2 Approval of Minutes of meeting held on 10th June 2019 signed as a true record after 1 amendment in point 12 line 2 where Church should read Millenium Garden.

3 Declaration of pecuniary and non-pecuniary interests: None stated.

4 Matters arising: Chair had received a letter from Joy Harris giving her notice as Clerk due to her illness. We wish her all the best for a speedy recovery. The vacancy has been advertised with good interest, 3 CVs have been received and will be looked at in due course. It was noted that Foston are also looking for a Clerk.

Pot holes on Grange Road have been reported but as they are not on the road but more within the grass they may not be dealt with. The matter of the grass has been dealt with.

5 Progress Reports and Updates

(a) Police and ASB report – nothing from Insp. Wilson but a police bulletin highlighted a rise in shop thefts in Driffield.

(b) Social Centre report – No report provided as Cllr Greaves was absent.

(c) Chapel update – the work is now complete and the bill paid. The question was asked if it will be used this summer. Polly Stead to be asked if the History Group have plans. Also Cllr Doyle to enquire within the village with Artists if they would be interested in using it for displays etc.

(d) Allotment update – there has been interest from two people. They have each been given a copy of the terms and conditions and asked to apply for consideration.

(e) Jane Everson and colleague from East Riding Council attended the meeting. The following was discussed: Paul Tripp is the Head of Highways but Jane would confirm this is the person we should be contacting within the council. Discussion around the change to Septic tanks and how it may affect villagers. The Old Howe was discussed and Jane is to try and find out the position.

6 Administration: Emergency Boxes need to be updated as the information contained in them is out of date. This will be one of the first jobs for the new Clerk.
