b. National Highways and Transport Survey

A survey was completed at the request of East Riding of Yorkshire Council asking opinions on services provided regarding condition of roads, footpaths and cycling facilities.

c. B1249 Wansford to North Frodingham

East Riding of Yorkshire Council proposed to reduce the speed limit on the B1249 between Wansford and North Frodingham to 50 miles per hour.

Resolved: The Parish Council approved the proposal.

6. Administration

To receive updates on:

a. Village Improvement Committee

- There are now eight volunteers for Community Speedwatch and Councillor Silcock is working towards getting the project underway.
- The Committee is looking at methods of obtaining funding for village improvements and the possibility of a leaflet drop and/or a walk about to receive ideas from residents later in the year when hopefully COVID cases are lower.
- The Parish Council is still waiting for a date for the traffic survey along the main street.
- Councillors will be attending the Social Centre Summer Fayre and will be able to answer any questions or listen to ideas from residents.
- Lisset Windfarm have offered a grant of £4000, £8200 was applied for. It was hoped the grant would allow for the purchase of a new mower, railings and gate repair for the cemetery. Councillors are seeking updated quotes and the cost of hiring a mower to enable an informed decision on the best way to use the grant.
- Councillors are looking into the cost and suitable location for a mill stone to be placed at the entrance to the village.

b. Social Centre

The Social Centre Summer Fayre is going ahead on the 24 July 2021, there will be live music and the event will have a Star Wars theme. All Social Centre finances are in order.

c. Allotment

Councillors are working on the feasibility of getting the allotment ready to rent out in time for the planting season next year, it is a large task and options for funding are being investigated.

d. Asset Inspections

A list of assets was circulated and inspections will be carried out.

e. Councillor Vacancy

East Riding of Yorkshire Council confirmed that the current vacancy can now be filled by co-option, notices will be placed on the noticeboards and website.
