

May 2024

It's May, which means (come rain or shine - or arctic blasts) we traditionally open with a piece from the Bowling Club...

Cromarty Bowling Club

The Bowling Club opened up the new season on Sunday 28th April with the first jack being thrown by Helen Fraser, a traditional start. Helen was asked as a long-standing friend and member of the club and she had donated a seat in memory of her late husband Francis as well as Ian Thompson, another late member of long-standing. After throwing the first jack (pictured above), Helen then dedicated the seat to the delight of members who had gathered for this first day. During the subsequent refreshments, Alistair Hourston, the President of the Club, presented long-time member Douglas Cooper with a bottle of whisky and awarded him lifetime membership of the club in recognition of his time as a member.

Arts Trust

May is starting off in style with the 12th annual Cromarty Crime & Thrillers Weekend from 3 – 5 May. We've had some amazing authors over the years and 2024 is no exception. We're starting off with a play on Friday night in the Victoria Hall. GOLD! is full of banging 80's tunes and loads of laughs. Action continues all day in the Victoria Hall on Saturday 4th with Trial by Jury. Author Mark Bridgeman walks us through a real-life crime, you become the jury and decide what the result was... guilty or not guilty. Talks and chat all day from Ian Rankin and Anthony Horowitz, Donna Freed and Nicola White, JD Kirk and FE Birch. There is a pub quiz in the Fishertown Inn on Saturday at 9pm, brush up on your crime knowledge and prepare for some fiendish questions provided by this weekend's authors, (great raffle prizes too!) Then we move to the Courthouse for Sunday's talks from David Alston, Marsali Taylor and Sarah Smith, and GC Fisher. Big thanks to the Courthouse team for letting us fill the benches for the day. The full programme is available online at www.cromartyartstrust.org.uk/crime-and-thrillers

Local (sometime) resident (Sir) Ian Rankin will need little introduction, but will, no doubt, reveal some fascinating new insights over the course of the weekend.

The rest of the month is busy too. Sunday 19 May sees an afternoon concert at the Stables by the Veles Ensemble, a string trio from London. They are playing Rolla, Beethoven, Shubert and more. A real treat for classical music fans. £14, tea and coffee included, under 18s free.

Brilliant trad band McKerron Brechin Ó hEadhra are back at the Stables on Friday 24 May. These are some of the best musicians around and play a blazing set. With fiddle, guitar, voice and accordion, this is a concert not to be missed. £14 BYOB.

More music on Friday 31 May with Frankie Morrow. Scottish rock's newest phenomena, you heard them here first, don't miss it! This is a joint event with Resolis Community Arts at Resolis Memorial Hall and funded by The Touring Network.

Crafters can try their hand at the ancient technique of coil basket making on 26 May. A one-day workshop using found and forged materials and taught by Shetland crofter and basket maker Aurore Whitworth, this is your chance to learn something new and make your own beautiful basket.

Cromarty Care Project

Last month, Cromarty Care Project held a special lunch at the Royal Hotel to honour our founder and first Chairperson, Dr Jill Stoner B.E.M., who will be leaving Cromarty in the very near future. The event was attended by present and past trustees and volunteers. Our current Chair, Denise McIntosh, expressed heartfelt thanks to Jill for her vision and dedication to the Care Project and to the people of Cromarty and hoped that the current trustees and volunteers will make her proud by continuing to advance the work she began.

Jill and her husband, Simon Evans (standing, back right), have brought so much to Cromarty, with involvement in St Regulus Church, the Cromarty Peace Group and musical recitals, not to mention the medical skills of both! We are so sorry to see them leave us, but we know they will enjoy being nearer to family. We wish them every happiness and hope they'll "aye come back tae see us"!

Lunch Club Summer Café

The Summer Café will continue in Cromarty Primary School during May. The pupils of P6 and P7 have been planning, costing and preparing delicious light lunches of soup, sandwiches and home-baking. Everyone who is "over-60" can attend for the small charge of £3 and the Summer Café is already proving very popular!

Please note – although the Café usually takes place on a Tuesday, there will be a change from Tuesday 14th to Wednesday 15th. Dates in May are: Tuesday 7th, Wednesday 15th, Tuesday 21st , Tuesday 28th.

For further information, or if you are unable to attend, please contact Alison on 07470 583641, no later than the day before.

This project has been made possible with support from the Bank of Scotland Foundation.

Seagull Trust Canal Cruises

If you'd like a morning cruise on the Caledonian Canal, the "Highland Cross Seagull" is for you! Cromarty Care Project will provide drivers to take you to Inverness where you can embark on a specially modified canal boat and enjoy the landscape and wildlife from Caley Marina to Dochgarroch and return. It's all free and you'll be home in time for lunch! To reserve a place, email info@cromartycareproject.co.uk or phone Denise on 07769 170773

Christine Macdonald, from Ross & Cromarty Citizens Advice Bureau, will be offering face-to-face appointments in the Victoria Hall on the third Tuesday of the month, 21st May. CAB can give advice on a whole range of issues including benefits, debt and money, energy, work issues, relationships and housing, and we can help you to fill out benefit forms. To book an appointment with Christine, telephone 01349 883333 or email adviser@alnesscab.casonline.org.uk

Below is this month's information from CAB:

CAB Focus on . . . Checking what benefits you can get

If you are struggling with the cost of living, you should check if you can claim benefits or increase your current benefits. Lots of people miss out on benefits that they are entitled to - so it is worth checking what you can get.

There is help available – and it is not just for those out of work. There is support for those earning but still struggling, plus there may be additional help if you have children, caring responsibilities, or a long-term health condition. You might be able to claim certain benefits even if you work, have savings or own a home. Claiming benefits may also mean you can get access to other financial help like cost of living payments and discounts on energy and transport.

To check what benefits you can get, you can use an online benefits calculator.

A benefits calculator can tell you what benefits you may be eligible to apply for, and how much money you could receive. To get the most accurate results, you will need information about your savings, income, pension, childcare payments and any existing benefits for you and your partner, if you have one.

None of the benefit calculators can give you an accurate answer if you are a student, on strike, living outside the UK, living permanently in residential care or a nursing home, or in prison. This is because it is more complex to work out the benefit entitlement for these situations.

You can use the Entitledto benefits calculator for a detailed overview of what you might get. Entitledto's calculator is particularly useful if you are already claiming benefits, you are sick or disabled, or you are over State Pension age. www.entitledto.co.uk

If you want a quick overview of what help you might get, you can use the Turn2us benefits calculator. benefits-calculator.turn2us.org.uk

Alternatively, you can book a Benefit Check with the Citizens Advice Bureau. Our adviser will take you through the benefit calculator and talk to you about the benefits that you may be entitled to claim.

Harbour Trust

Three pontoons now back in their summer berth, two temporarily on the grass for a quick swapping out of the floats to lower their height in the water. Delivery is late hence when they are on the grass, hopefully gone in 3-4 weeks.

Thanks to all those who have signed up for the Harbour Angel Share, it has been a great fundraiser for repairs at the harbour. There are still a few shares available, so if interested please scan the QR code or check cromartyharbour.org. Everything you need to know about it is there.

Lastly, we welcome Fiona Deakin and her fellow Atlantic rowers on Sunday 19 May at around 3pm in the harbour. They are stopping off as they do a fundraiser from North Kessock to Storehouse. This is to help fund their Atlantic row in 2025. Fifteen other boats are coming along for the ride. Should be a good spectacle. Do come down to support and see what takes these rowers across the Atlantic.

Open Gardens

Countdown to Cromarty's big fundraising event – Art, Flowers & Gardens galore

The countdown is now on until the start of the popular Art & Flowers week-long display on 1st June, culminating with Cromarty Open Gardens on 8th & 9th June. Hopefully the two events will raise even more than last year when we were able to distribute £6,970 between 11 local organisations.

East Church is the venue for the Art & Flowers display which features intricate floral arrangements with a nautical theme to mark the 200th anniversary of the RNLI together with an exhibition of Botanical and Wildlife illustrations. Art & Flowers is open from 1st June from 11am to 4pm daily until Sunday 9th June.

The weekend of 8th & 9th June sees Cromarty gardeners throw open their gates once again to allow locals and visitors alike to wander around the town and view up to 30 gardens of all sizes and layouts – all the work of their owners and each displaying a wide variety of ideas for their own special haven.

There will be music on Saturday and Sunday plus a roving bagpiper, plants will be on sale, tea and home baking will be on offer plus a Tombola on Saturday and a Bric A Brac stall on Sunday. With admission set at £5 per person, under 12's free, the event offers real value for money especially as tickets are valid for both days.

Hopefully Cromarty folk will once again give their support to both events and encourage friends and family to join the many visitors who visit the town over the eight days. If anyone in Cromarty would like to join in and open their garden do get in touch – we are not asking for show gardens, just to give visitors the chance to see what you enjoy in your open space.

Plants, Bric A Brac and Tombola prizes welcomed

With the weather warming up there is still time to plant a few extra seeds or to pot up some self-seeded babies from your favourite plants. Garden or household Bric A Brac will find a good home and any donations of small items as prizes for the Tombola would be appreciated – the more items we have the more money we can raise. Volunteers to help with home baking would also be welcome. Many local businesses give generous support to these two events and we are delighted that Global Energy Nigg are backing us again this year. Thank you all.

So, make a note of the dates and come along and support Art & Flowers from 1st to 9th June and Cromarty Open Gardens on 8th & 9th June.

Courthouse Museum

For May we are hosting a free Climate Conversation event on Wednesday 29th May, 11-12pm, at the Courthouse where everyone is invited to come along to chat about the great projects happening in the Highlands, share ideas for positive changes we can make locally, and make some native wildflower seed pots to take away. Macia, a Countryside Ranger from High Life Highland will be showing a video from Climate Action Highland and there will be refreshments.

We had exciting news - the museum has been selected to be one of the 16 Scottish museums taking part in the Museum Transformers programme which aims to empower museum teams to make changes to help all people access culture. This will be a two year programme to help us find ways to deepen our community impact and ensure that everyone feels welcome.

We are going to be trialling new opening hours with the museum open Wednesday to Sunday in term time and 7 days a week in the school holidays and for bank holidays. This is part of our work to find a sustainable future for the museum given these challenging times.

Looking forward to seeing you on one of our new guided tours soon and please get in touch if you are interested in volunteering.

History Society

We have an extra meeting this month – Sheila Currie's postponed talk about Black Isle place names. Sheila will take us on a journey around the area seeking out what our local place names tell us about the past and the people who lived here. As usual – all are invited to join members at this meeting at 7.30pm on Tuesday 21 May at the Victoria Hall, with refreshments served after the talk.

A new season of talks will commence in the autumn; we will post the details once all the arrangements have been made.

CROMARTY HISTORY SOCIETY & Friends of Cromarty Courthouse

A TOUR of BLACK ISLE place names

Speaker:
Sheila Currie

7.30pm Tuesday
21 May 2024

Revealing the people, languages, values and changes over time

www.cromartyhistory.scot

As we go about the Black Isle, do we ever wonder where our place-names come from and what they mean? This talk will take the form of a tour around the Black Isle, stopping to peer at some of the road signs we pass by without a thought; teasing out what these place-names can tell us about the histories of the people who have lived here since these names were first written down. What do the names we give tell us about what was important to the people at that time? Which languages did they speak and how did the languages change? How did that change the place names over time? Hopefully, you will come away with a flavour of the deep history of the places we whizz past in our car or vaguely notice out the bus window and may be inspired to do your own examining of the many hundreds of local place names that I won't be able to mention in this talk.

After spells working in Archaeology, Geology, various factories, the Oil Industry, Nature Conservation and Environmental Management, being retired allowed Sheila to follow her nose and be entranced by what's around her, including (very) amateur history research into this part of the world, where she has lived for 32 years now. She is fascinated by the people who have lived hereabouts since the glaciers receded some 12,000 years ago and what is revealed by the traces they have left.

Business Updates

Gallery 48 and Cromarty Pottery

We will be having a May Bank Holiday sale (4th, 5th and 6th May) to make way for lovely new stock.

Selected items will be up to 50% off! So come and pick up some bargains.

Opening hours 10.30 - 5pm.

Just some of the things that will be on offer.

Cromarty Brewing Co.

We have had a very busy April this year. While Chap and Jenni jetted off to hotter climates to celebrate a very special wedding anniversary (and well deserved vacation) the Easter Holidays kicked off and, in anticipation of the summer fast approaching, production has certainly ramped up this month.

The Brewery Shop fridge has never been so full!!! Joining our Double Rocker and Breakfast in Berlin this month was new brew Superdelic, forming part of our ongoing Hop Showcase IPA range. Superdelic is a New Zealand hop which has tropical fruit, candy and berry notes and yes it tastes as good as it sounds.

We were serving up pints of Happy Chappy and Lager at the Etape Loch Ness last weekend, 28th April. We will also be back at Crathes Castle on 25th and 26th May for our only May Market, so if you're looking for a day out don't forget about this.

Our on-site shop is packed with merchandise and other gifts so make sure to pop in for a look, we have been building up a range of great wee Cromarty Brewing Souvenirs/Gifts for all.

Our on-site shop opening hours remain Monday to Friday 10am till 4pm and Saturday 10am till 2pm.

Fishertown Inn

We have our next quiz night as part of Crime and Thrillers weekend on May 4th at 9pm. We are fully booked for food but plenty of room for quizzers. If anyone would like to host a quiz as a fundraiser we have availability in the coming months.

We are serving Ice Cream from opening time until 8pm everyday from the beer garden. The evening opening will be extended as we head towards the summer.

A seasonal change to our menu means that next Sunday, May 5th, will be our last Sunday Roast but be assured Yorkshire puddings will still be an available feature!

We've had some great nights lately hosting birthday parties in the snug. If you've got a special occasion coming up get in touch. Tel: 01381600988

Sutor Creek

Sutor Creek turns 20 this May! Thanks to the original crew for having the vision to open, our customers for their continued support and to all the brilliant employees who have worked to make it what it is today. Thank you!

Our hours for May are Monday & Tuesday 10-4pm and Wednesday to Sunday 10-8pm. Book a table or order a take-away online at www.sutorcreek.co.uk

Calluna

Check out lots of what is available in-store on our website (you'll also find some sale bargains!)

www.callunacromarty.co.uk. The shop itself is bursting with beautiful colours and styles that are perfect for the warmer months ahead (they are coming - promise:). We are open 10-5pm daily and are happy to help you find what you are looking for but also welcome you just to come in for a good browse!

(I might just hold you to that promise - Ed)

Ingrid's House

We have some great new products in stock including these beautiful coasters by Swedish company Hipp Story. We are open 7 days a week.

Community Development Trust

Royal Hotel

Grants

CCDT secured a grant from the Architectural Heritage Fund, to (mostly) match-fund the money awarded by the Scottish Land Fund. These grants now jointly fund 95% of the feasibility study on the Royal Hotel, with 5% matched by CCDT.

Feasibility Study

A detailed building survey has been conducted to record the existing building and assess its current condition. This information will be transferred to the first of the reports which accompany the feasibility study for CCDT and the community.

Impact Hub Inverness is currently preparing a questionnaire, in consultation with CCDT, for circulation to the community, as the next phase.

East Church Hall

Lease Options

CCDT are currently in liaison with Ian Goode of Highlife Highland and Lewis Hannah, Ward and Community Development Manager in the Highland Council on the fine detail connected to getting the East Church Hall opened up.

On Monday, we met Lewis Hannah, visiting Cromarty Camping, The Thrift Shop and East Church Hall to support this happening and discuss lease options.

Unit 2 | Whitedykes Industrial Estate

Community Asset Transfer

Following an expression of interest in the above, CCDT have now met the Commercial Estates Management Team of Highland Council, to visually inspect the building and assess the merits of taking the commercial unit into community ownership.

A formal asset transfer request is now being made to the Community Asset Transfer Team of the Highland Council. This will trigger a second SLF application in Summer 2024.

CCDT are working alongside HIE and SLF over this. Unit 2 will jointly enable Cromarty Camping to expand works and simultaneously shore up demand for light industrial units within the community.

But this is something that will take into 2025, probably.

Cromarty Camping

With an on-site team of two, hard and soft landscape works are progressing at a pace. Over April, John and Rory constructed a staircase to the upper terrace and zone for two cycling touring tents; and completed a section of drystone dyke which is to become the new herb garden. In Autumn last year John seeded areas of the campsite with a mix of wildflowers and seed gathered from gardens across Cromarty, and these - if successful - will be the no-cut zones of the site, to support wildlife and biodiversity. Come along and have a look!

Bookings continue to roll in, from as close as Ardersier and as far away as Austria.

Thrift Shop

Our brilliant volunteer team is now back in full swing. Donations have again flooded in, including some which enormously help the operating side of the shop: Jon and Emmy have kindly gifted the thrift shop their 'cheese shop' till and counter, making life so much easier. The thrift shop has also been gifted industrial flooring, which insulates the floor. Approximately £600 has been made over the first two Saturdays. Please keep your donations coming in.

CCDT AGM - save the date

Our AGM will be on the evening of Thursday 6 June. Members will receive an email with all the details in due course, so keep the date. We've signed up for a new membership system, so new or renewed memberships will be done online.

Cinema

Here at Cromarty cinema we're truly hoping April showers will bring May flowers but come rain or shine, we have a great May schedule waiting for you!

There's plenty of action and fun on offer this month. If you're in the market for action with a capital A, Monkey Man, Dev Patel's wildly over-the-top revenge action thriller is just the ticket. Revisit George Lucas' epic Star Wars: Episode 1 – Phantom Menace, or check out the latest Ghost Busters: Frozen Empire, for some hilarious action. For those after even more laughs, Two Tickets to Greece is a refreshing French female buddy comedy, while The Trouble with Jessica is a deliciously dark satire set in the world of wealthy London liberals.

As usual, you're spoilt for choice when it comes to international drama. In The Teacher's Lounge, unsolved thefts lead to an increasingly unsettling day at a German school. A near-death experience results in the existential and sexual awakening of a woman in Georgian Blackbird Blackbird Blackberry, while Oscar-nominated Spanish animation Robot Dreams is an exquisite and bittersweet study of loneliness and friendship.

Fans of Ewan McGregor are in for a treat in May. In addition to Phantom Menace, we're screening two other films starring the iconic actor. It's the 30th anniversary of the hilarious and slick thriller Shallow Grave, and you can also catch his latest, Bleeding Love, a road-trip film starring his real-life daughter Clara.

For something a bit different, a filmmaker documents the last years of his eccentric uncle's life in Much Ado About Dying, with often-tragicomic results. And you don't want to miss powerhouse Andrew Scott's one-man performance of Vanya, in the latest National Theatre Live.

A lot of you have been asking and yes, Amy Winehouse biopic Back to Black is coming to Cromarty Cinema this May! And that's not all, so have a look at everything on offer and book your tickets at <https://cromartycinema.com/films/>, the human box office Thursdays 12-2, or at the door.

Happy May from the Cromarty Cinema crew!
