

The North of Scotland Archaeological Society...

... will be 20 years old in 2018.
Amazing, but true!

We plan to celebrate!

23rd – 25th March 2018

NOSAS Weekend Conference 23rd-25th March 2018

We plan to celebrate our 20th Birthday with a weekend conference:

- Friday afternoon – a guided walk in Inverness
- Friday evening presentation – Fraser Hunter, National Museums of Scotland: What did the Romans ever do for the Highlands?
- Saturday – a Conference in Inverness, £16, see below
- Saturday evening – a dinner in the Mercure Hotel, Inverness
- Sunday – a guided field trip south of Inverness

Looking Backwards, Looking Forwards:

20 Years of NOSAS and Community Archaeology in the Highlands

Saturday 24th March 2018

Highland Council Chambers, Inverness

A Conference to review 20 years of Highland's community archaeology, and to peer into the next 20 years. What will change? What will we be doing then?

Morning Session: Looking Backwards Chair - Roland Spencer-Jones, NOSAS

Meryl Marshall, NOSAS - 20 Years of NOSAS

Susan Kruse, ARCH - ARCH and the Community

Tanja Romankiewicz, University of Edinburgh - Rounding up Roundhouses – stories both known and unknown

Dave McBain, Historic Assynt – another 20-year celebration

Nick Lindsay, Clyne Heritage Society - Clyne Heritage, and Brora Salt Pans

A NOSAS Slide-show - Activities and People

Afternoon Session: Looking Forwards Chair - Andy Heald, AOC

Graeme Cavers, AOC - The Future of Surveying

Lisa Brown, Historic Environment Scotland - The Future Science of Archaeology

Lynne & Lachlan McKeggie, Highland Archaeology Services - The Future for Excavation

Tom Dawson, SCAPE - The Future of Archaeology and the Media

Panel Discussion of the above speakers:

What place does the amateur archaeologist have in this bold new future?

Further details on our website: www.nosas.co.uk/20Years.asp

or email Karen Kennedy: nosas20years@gmail.com

Do join us. Put the date in your diaries. Book now.

