

NOSAS 20 YEAR CELEBRATION, 23-25th March 2018

Friday:

- 1400. A walk along the Caledonian Canal, led by Bob Jones.
- 1800. Evening buffet meal, Highland Council Chambers
- 1900. Dr Fraser Hunter presentation:

What have the Romans ever done for the Highlands? Highland Council Chambers

Saturday:

- 0930 An Archaeological Conference – see the timetable below
- 1830 for 1900: A Conference dinner in the Mercure Hotel

The Conference:

20 Years of NOSAS and Community Archaeology in the Highlands: Looking Backwards, Looking Forwards

Morning Session: Looking Backwards Chair - Roland Spencer-Jones, Chair of NOSAS
Time	Speaker	Title
0930	Roland Spencer-Jones, Chair of NOSAS	Welcome, notices, scene setting.
0935	Meryl Marshall, NOSAS	20 Years of NOSAS
1000	Susan Kruse, ARCH	ARCH and the Community
1025	Tanja Romankiewicz, University of Edinburgh	Rounding up Roundhouses – stories both known and unknown
1050	Coffee
1120	Dave McBain, Historic Assynt	Assynt Archaeology – another 20-year celebration
1145	Nick Lindsay, Clyne Heritage Society	Clyne Heritage, and Brora Salt Pans
1210	NOSAS	NOSAS Activities and People
1245	Lunch
Afternoon Session: Looking Forwards Chair - Andy Heald, AOC
1355	Roland Spencer-Jones & Andy Heald, AOC	Opening Remarks
1400	Graeme Cavers AOC	The Future of Surveying
1425	Lisa Brown, HES.	The Future Science of Archaeology
1450	Tea
1520	Lynne & Lachlan McKeggie, HAS	The Future of Excavation
1545	Tom Dawson, SCAPE	The Future of Archaeology and the Media
1610	All four afternoon speakers. Chaired by Andy Heald	Panel Discussion – What place the amateur archaeologist in this bold new future?
1650	Roland Spencer-Jones	Closing Remarks
1700	Close

Sunday:

- 1030 A walk at Inverlaidnan and Sluggan Bridge – with Eve Boyle. Led by Meryl Marshall