

The effort and concentration needed for the old game of quoits, as shown by 70-years-old Mr. Harry Cherry, of Thornton Steward, taking part in the open competition on the village green on Saturday.