

Could not foresee was the impact of the motor car and the movement of city commuters back to ~~live~~ the villages and the ~~impact~~^{effect} this would have on village and church life. He was known then as the "father" of the Wensleydale Rural Deanery and was obviously a man much respected in the Church as a whole and also within Thornton Steward itself.