Reason 1	The parish council had a land dispute which had been ongoing for a number of years. The claimant dropped the case when they sold their property in November 2016, however they sold their property including the parish land. It was decided to agree to sell the land to the new owner who paid £5500.00 and £660.00 was paid out of this sale to the land agent. The land agent made a mistake and missed off £60 when they transferred the money to the parish council, but that has now been paid in the 2019/20 tax year.
Reason 2	Rents on parish land increased from £490 at the end of 2018 to £610 at the end of 2019 tax year. This is dues to all land now being rented out.
