JMECA: The Jerusalem and Middle East Churches Association Al Ahli Hospital Appeal, Gaza

The Al Ahli Hospital in Gaza, owned and sacrificially supported over many years by the Episcopal (Anglican) Diocese of Jerusalem, continues to serve the whole 'family' (Ahl) of human beings in Gaza. It provides a vital service in an increasingly desperate situation. The hospital is committed to providing 24/7 health services for all people in need of medical care.

The charity is run with just two part-time paid members of staff employed by the JEMT standing committee and operates from a small office in Farnham, Surrey, ensuring administration costs are kept to a minimum. These costs are covered in full from an annual 1% manage fee on the investment capital. This means it can send 100% of a donor's gift to the work in the diocese.
