Present

Cllrs Body (Chairman), Beynon, Spooner and Vining. Also in attendance was the Parish Clerk. 1 member of the public was present.

Open Forum

A resident raised concerns including a locked gate on a public footpath, animal husbandry, development and a blocked footpath. It was noted that Somerset Council are investigating the potential development and blocked footpath. The Council will investigate the locked gate. It was discussed that any concerns regarding animals should be reported to the appropriate agencies.

120/25 Apologies: Cllr Mahoney. The apology was approved.

Cllr Shaw and Somerset Councillors Filmer and Grimes: apologies were received after the meeting.

121/25 Declarations of Interest: None.

122/25 To consider the quotes to repair the fence in the Memorial Field, Biddisham

3 quotes had been sought. One quote had been received and a further quote was expected. The following matters were discussed: funds available, that the field is stock proof. Members decided to revisit the quotes in September or to consider budgetting a larger sum for the fence to complete the work next year.

123/25 To consider the amendments to planning application 03/25/00010.

Resolution: To support the amendment. There were no objections and no comments.
