Glossary entry

ethics: Standards defined by groups and cultures as enduring, long-held beliefs intended to guide not just individuals, but a society as a whole.

Further explanation

There is a distinction between values and ethics in Living Educational Theory Research; ethics are given a philosophical meaning in terms of the conceptual understanding of meanings of shared value-words such as justice, freedom, care, and compassion.