

Glossary entry

explanatory principles: The descriptions and explanations of values in action used by a Living Educational Theory Research account to form the basis and structure of the account. These principles provide the reasons that explain educational influences in learning.

Further explanation

The generation and testing of theory is a fundamental purpose of research. A theory usually explains why something happens. In Living Educational Theory Research a living-educational-theory explains an individual's educational influences in learning with values of human flourishing.