

Glossary entry

living-educational-theory: A professional practitioner's descriptions of and explanations for their educational influence in their own learning in the learning of others and in the learning of the social formation that is the context of their practice. The explanatory principles in these explanations are informed by the researcher's values as ethical principles and standards of judgment that emerge over time through practice.

Further explanation

The uniqueness of each individual's living-educational-theory is grounded in the unique constellation of values used by each individual to give meaning and purpose to their professional educational practice.
