

Glossary entry

values: The elements of an individual's principles, standards, or qualities that they identify as significant, worthwhile and desirable for guiding their intentional actions.

Further explanation

Values are given embodied meanings that are expressed and clarified as they emerge in the course of a Living Educational Theory Research enquiry.