2. A copy of your entry on the register of interests will be available for public inspection at Guildford Borough Council's offices and will also be published on Guildford Borough Council's website (normally via a hyperlink to the relevant page on the parish council's website).
3. Please note that, in addition to your own Disclosable Pecuniary Interests, you are also required to notify the Monitoring Officer of the Disclosable Pecuniary Interests (of which you are aware) of your spouse, civil partner or any person with whom you are living as if they were a spouse or civil partner. In this form such a person is referred to as the "Spouse/Civil Partner". The Spouse/Civil Partner is not required to be identified.
4. Within 28 days of becoming aware of any change to the interests specified below, you must complete a new register of interests form (a copy of which is available from your parish clerk) and return the completed form to your parish clerk, who will upload it to your parish council's website and send the original to the Monitoring Officer.
5. Failure to comply, without reasonable excuse, with the arrangements for the registration and disclosure of disclosable pecuniary interests is a criminal offence, with a penalty on conviction of a fine of up to £5,000 and disqualification from office for up to five years. It is also a criminal offence to knowingly provide false or misleading information when making the notification or to be reckless as to whether the information is true and not misleading.

Sensitive Interests

6. If you feel that you have an interest which, if disclosed on a public register, could lead to yourself or a person connected to you being subject to violence or intimidation, then you must still disclose the interest on this form, but highlight it as a Sensitive Interest. Your parish clerk will then refer your form to the Monitoring Officer who will contact you to discuss whether the interest should be withheld from the register viewable on the website and the publicly available register.
