EDITORIAL

Here we are again turning up like two bad pennies, with another taste of the sensational. September's come and gone, October's nearly through and November's on the doorstep. (Here we are again wishing our lives away!) Since our last "momentous" edition, the village has been a veritable hive of activity and you can rest assured that there'll be no let-up between now and the Festive season which is slowly creeping up on us, in case you hadn't noticed.

But something that has been noticed recently is a ginger Tom wearing a red and yellow collar with a bell on the end! The moggy has been sighted at 7 Heol-y-Wern and would anyone who knows anything about it please contact Lawrence Roberts at that address.

As we said earlier October was a real swinging month in these here parts - two of the highlights being the Blackpool Trip, which has probably established itself as an annual event, and the Senior Citizens' Party! On both occasions a good time was had by one and all, not that we'd know anything about it 'cos we were too late to get tickets for the first and we're under age for the second!

Well that's enough from us, read on and see what November has in store.....

But before November remember the Harvest Supper, October 29th.

Youth Club

The Club's annual Bonfire and Firework Display is on Friday, November 4th on the Village Field. The Bonfire will be lit at 7p.m. The display will last longer this year thanks to the generous donation from the Gwernymynydd Show, and the usual refreshments (soup, hot-dogs, etc.) will be on sale in the school.

Calling all Children: DON'T FORGET THE BEST GUY CONTEST: 1st. 2nd. and 3rd prizes. YOU CAN TAKE YOUR GUY HOME WITH YOU IF YOU WANT TO.

Penny-for-the-Guy Tour: Councillor Gwilym Roberts has once again kindly offered his services with tractor and trailer and the tour is on Saturday, 29th October. The decorated trailer will be leaving Gwernymynydd School at 2p.m. School children, as usual, are invited to join us. As last year, the proceeds will be donated to the Pensioners' Thursday Club.

Bargain Bazaar: the Club's Bargain Bazaar raised £50 for the fireworks fund. Many thanks indeed to the generous donors of goods and the customers who supported the sale. Special thanks to Miss Elizabeth Evans who dressed a beautiful little doll for a "Guess my name" competition.

Gwernymynydd Show

In September the Committee met to distribute this year's profits of £545 (a record). Three requests for funds were received from village organisations and the following was donated:-

Gwernymynydd Village Centre Committee	£165
Gwernymynydd Senior Citizens Social Fund	90
Gwernymynydd Youth Club Firework Fund	50
Mold Hospital League of Friends	10
	<hr/>

the remaining £230 was reserved for the organisation of next year's Show.

Officers Ken Sweetman (Chairman), Olive Sweetman (Secretary) and Syd Northall (Treasurer and Equestrian events) thank all who helped to make this Year's Show such a success. A truly magnificent community effort.

Jubilee Committee

The members met on 18th October to wind up the affairs of the Jubilee events. A full report on activities and finance will be given in the next newsletter. A balance sheet will be on view in the Village Centre and on the notice board outside the Infants school.
