1ST GWERNYMYNYDD GUIDES

In August we held our last joint camp as Gwernaffield Guides - 39 of us went to Bala for the week. At the camp the first two new members of Gwernymynydd Guides were enrolled - Michelle Bartleet and Kirstie Watts. Friday, 4th September we held our first meeting in the Village Centre. 18 Guides having transferred from the Gwernaffield Company and four new members joined us on this special evening.

I am pleased to have Mrs. S. Jones for an Assistant, Lynor Atkins as a Young Leader and MRS. L. Williams and Mrs. M. Whitehead as Unit Helpers.

As a new Company we will need to fund raise to purchase camping equipment for next year - if you have any kitchen utensils you wish to dispose of please contact me and if you wish to sell any camping equipment please give the Guides first refusal.

In conjunction with the Brownies we are selling Webb Ivory Christmas Cards, Paper etc. and on Friday, 23rd October we are holding a Hot Pot Supper in the Village Centre cost £1 for adults - tickets available soon.

I am sure that with the help of the Villagers we can make this new Guide Company as successful as the Brownies over the past eight years. Any queries to M. Atkins, MOLD 4997.
