May I on behalf of the Urdd Eisteddfod Hospitality Committee and the teachers of Coed y Gof, St. Baruc, Penweddig and Aberafan Schools, thank all the kind families who welcomed the young competitors to their homes during the Eisteddfod week. I also wish to thank Mr. A. Jones and Miss M. Hayes for the use of the Infants School. My gratitude to all who helped in any way to make the Eisteddfod a successful and memorable one.

Diolch yn fawr,

VILLAGE CENTRE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

The recent May Fair raised over £200, half of which was given to the Centre. The new May Queen is Mandy Taylor, aged 13, of Godre'r Coed, the Princess is Victoria Benger, aged 6, of Hafod y Wern, and the Rosebud is Amy Mulliner, aged 5, from Glyndwr Road. Many thanks to our three hard working judges, Miss Elizabeth Evans, Mrs. Margaret Lee and Mr. Ifor Peters. Thanks also to everyone who came to support us.

Mr. Bob Mountford of the Rainbow Gardening Club arranged a Treasure Hunt which started and ended at the Rainbow on Monday, 11th June. Twenty-four cars full of treasurer seekers took part and Mr. Mountford kindly donated the £53 which was taken during the evening to the Centre. Our grateful thanks to Mr. Mountford and Landlord, Bob Collings.

LOST

At the May Fair on Saturday, May 26th a silver bracelet belonging to Sarah Jones of 43, Uwch y Dre was lost - probably on the Infant's School field, but could have been lost in the Tros y Wern Estate. Would anyone finding the bracelet please contact Sarah's family. (Great sentimental value).
