COMMUNITY COUNCIL The eight candidates nominated for Gwernymynydd were returned unopposed. Three of the eleven seats remained unfilled. The eight are Roy Astbury, Mair Bellis, Bill Grove, Moreton Hayes, Sandra Jones, Elizabeth Parry, Olive Sweetman and Keith Taylor. At the final meeting of the retiring council it was agreed that the three members needed should be co-opted. Next meeting: Thursday May 18th. at the school, starting at 7.15pm.

DANGER WARNING!!!!!! Concerned residents have reported that children are playing in what is considered a dangerous area. This is the old quarry at the rear of Llys Enfys and Bryn Eithen known locally as 'Petrines' or 'Jones's concrete paving stones works'. Parents should be aware of the hazards connected with the area.

VILLAGE CENTRE COMMITTEE. At the recent A. G. M. officers elected were Chairman Bill Grove, Vice-Chairman Eric Walker, Booking Secretary Vicki Seddon. After serving for four years as secretary and treasurer Mr. and Mrs. Atkins asked the committee to consider replacing them, due to other commitments. The members reluctantly agreed, and praised the work of both during the difficult transition of the building from school to community centre.

URGENT VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!!! The houses on Ruthin Rd. from the end of Llys Enfys to Maeshafn turning do not receive newsletters as there are no 'deliverers' for that area. Can anyone help with this once monthly service ?. Also one or preferably two deliverers are needed to distribute to the stretch of Ruthin Rd. from the War Memorial to the Rainbow Garage. If you can possibly help, ring Paul and Sue Elsley on 754221. Our thanks to the Post Office, Morris's Shop, and local pubs for displaying spare copies.

RAINBOW RAMBLERS The Spring and Summer programme is in operation. Everyone is welcome to go along each Sunday to Llys Enfys where walkers meet at 2.00pm. For more information ring John Mather Mold 755672.
