

Community Health Exchange, CHEX is offering a free afternoon's training

An Introduction to Inequalities and Health
Tuesday 27th March
At the Victoria Halls, Helensburgh
12.30-4.00pm

We are seeking people interested in learning about the how inequalities affect people's health. We will explore the social model of health and the human rights perspective of this important topic.

Whether you work or volunteer in the Community and Voluntary Sector, the NHS or Local Authority you may be eligible for this interactive training.

The training is funded by NHS Health Scotland through the National Collaborative on Inequalities.

To register your interest for this training please contact us indicating that you are interested in the training in Helensburgh. (we are delivering training in more than one area) by emailing Alex MacDonald.

Alex.MacDonald@scdc.org.uk

Registration will be on a first come first served basis.

For further information, you can contact:-

Elsbeth Gracey elsbeth.gracey@scdc.org.uk

Or Susan Paxton susan.paxton@scdc.org.uk

Main office number 0141 248 1990

CHEX is part of the Scottish Community Development Centre, SCDC.

www.chex.org.uk www.scdc.org.uk