A Victory For The Environment And For Local Communities

Cromarty Live is proud to be given the opportunity to bring you a genuine press exclusive.

Breaking News

Supporters of Cromarty Rising are this week celebrating a significant legal ruling. Duncan Bowers writes:

'Following a successful campaign, the Scottish Information Commissioner has confirmed that the Cromarty Firth Port Authority has been deemed a "Public Authority" for the purposes of the Environmental Information (Scotland) Regulations 2004.

A Public Authority must make environmental information available proactively and members of the public are entitled to request information on subjects such as land development, all forms of pollution, energy production, air quality and waste management. Requests must be handled within 20 days and the public have a right of appeal.

The Information Commissioner's Office has published detailed guidelines which can be found on their website here: What are the Environmental Information Regulations? | ICO

As Cromarty Firth Port Authority is a Scottish Trust Port, this decision should align very well with Nolan Committee Standards for Public Office for those appointed to the Board.

The port has 42 days to appeal the decision.'

Ed - Expect to hear a lot more about this over the coming weeks and months but, for once, we can honestly say: 'you heard it here first'.

Croma-Tea in the Park

A fabulous day was had by all who attended the Cromar-Tea in the park. It was great to see such a big turnout of people for the day.

With some beautiful weather, amazing entertainment, and good food, it was a day to remember. The Lord Lieutenant even read a thank you note from King Charles himself – certainly one for the history books.

A huge thank you must go to Anne Short of the 4ways and her volunteers who made this event possible.

Cromarty Care Project

Seagull Trust Cruises

During the summer months, Seagull Trust Cruises operate a specially adapted boat on the Caledonian Canal. The boat can accommodate up to 12 passengers and is equipped with a passenger lift and a fully accessible toilet. Every year, our participants have the chance to admire the scenery, enjoy the wildlife, or just kick back with a cuppa and have a nice chat!

Some of our previous 'cruisers'

CCP will handle the booking and provide transport to and from Inverness – and it's all free! So if you'd like to put your name forward, or the name of someone you think would enjoy the outing, please contact us on: info@cromartycareproject.co.uk

Slow Cookers Update

We are hoping to deliver a further 11 slow cookers very soon. That will mean a total of 46 households in the community will have received slow cookers to help beat the cost of living. It's all thanks to Marcel and Kitty at Cromarty Stores, who supported our application to Making A Difference Locally, the charitable arm of Nisa Retail.

The “Trikes” – Cromarty’s Very Own Taxi Service!

Now summer is finally here, the “Trikes” are available to help you travel in style anywhere around Cromarty. If you want to see what they're like, just take a look on our website at the lovely wee film made in March by Eden Court film-maker, Chak Hin Leung.

The Charity who provides the – proper name – “Trishaws” is called “Cycling Without Age” and they've been short-listed for this year's Scottish Charity of the Year Award.

If you need help to get about, or would like to become a pilot for us, please contact Shirley on 01381 600451

Playgroup

The playgroup is still taking place in the West Church Hall. It is open to parents/carers with babies and toddlers. Every Tuesday during term-time, 10 – 11.30 a.m.

Table Tennis

Whether you just enjoy ‘ping pong’, or are more interested in honing serious table tennis skills, you will be very welcome at the West Church Hall. Table tennis has been shown to improve brain function as well as being a fun way to exercise and socialise. Join us on a Monday morning, 10.30 – 12.00

Callout for Carers!

Cromarty urgently needs Home Carers. Topcare Inverness are the care provider locally and are keen to chat with anyone interested in working as a Home Carer. No experience necessary, training is provided locally. Do consider this possibility even if you can only offer a few hours a week. Contact Jill Stoner for more information on 07850 889015, or Maxine Worsfold on 07483 881981

THANK YOU!

We really appreciate the kindness and compassion of all our donors, who are making such a difference to the lives of many people in our community. Just recently, a holidaying couple donated £50 for the Community Larder and we were really touched by such a lovely gesture. Every week there are always donations of food at the Larder – from Cromarty residents, for Cromarty residents and we want you to know that it means a lot, especially in these hard times. If you feel you'd like to contribute to our various projects, whether by one-off donation or by regular giving, you can do so on our website (and please tell us if you're a UK taxpayer, so we can reclaim Gift Aid on your donation). If you'd like to contribute in any other way, or have questions about any of our projects, please contact us: info@cromartycareproject.co.uk

Open Gardens, Art and Flowers

Chelsea may be over but, don't worry, Cromarty will have plenty of horticultural and artistic colour on show with a cornucopia of flowers, botanic art and open gardens to enjoy starting from Saturday 17th June.

Do take time out to visit this year's Art and Flowers display being held in Cromarty's East Church from Saturday 17th June for eight days. It is always an outstanding event enhanced by the atmospheric setting of the historic old church.

'All Things Bright and Beautiful' is the theme of the floral displays created by local flower arrangers and co-ordinated by Evelyn Wilson. Well over 2000 blooms will be used to assemble the floral works of art with a team of arrangers and helpers working together to achieve the designs.

Alongside these elegant flower displays detailed Botanic and Wildlife artworks will be exhibited, the work of up to fifteen pupils studying with local Botanic artist, Julie Price. Each work can take hours of concentration in order to achieve the intricate detail of the flora and fauna being painted and the results are beautiful to observe.

The Art and Flowers display is open daily from 11am to 4pm from Sunday 17th to Sunday 25th June 2023. Admission is by donation with an amount of £1 per person suggested. All monies raised are part of the Open Gardens/Art & Flowers fundraising event and will be distributed to local charities and organisations, including towards the upkeep of East Church. The art element of this will be dedicated to the memory of the late Campbell McCracken who had been attending the classes for 9 years. He was a talented and prolific painter who produced some beautiful and delicate work. Many of his paintings will be in the church in a special display dedicated to him.

Cromarty Open Gardens makes a welcome return on Saturday 23rd and Sunday 24th giving locals and visitors the chance to see behind the walls or peer over the fence at the many lovely gardens around the town, large and small, each one a special haven for its owners. It is a wonderful opportunity to pick up ideas for your own patch and, with around 30 gardens (including some new ones) and the allotments to visit, you are sure to find something of interest.

Plants and books will be on sale plus there is the chance to win a prize on the Tombola. Two gardens will be serving tea and home baking and, with many local shops and places to eat and drink, it all adds up to a great day out. And don't forget to call in to the Art and Flowers display in East Church.

Gardens are open from 11am to 4pm. Admission is £5 per person (under 12's free) and tickets are valid for both days. Tickets and lists of open gardens are available from The Hub at East Bellevue House on Church Street or from the dedicated Open Gardens car parking area on The Links. Dogs are welcome on leads in many of the gardens but please respect the wishes of owners where a 'No Dogs' sign is displayed.

The Open Gardens and the Art and Flowers display are big fundraising events. It is hoped that this year we will be able to better the £5,600 raised last year – this amount was distributed between 10 local charities and organisations. Many local businesses provide generous sponsorship for these two events so please do give them your support.

Can you help with Tombola prizes?

We will be running a Tombola this year at £1 per go – if anyone can donate small items for prizes we would be most appreciative. If you can help please contact:- Julie & Jeremy Price 01381 600709

Alison Palmer 01381 600466 or Ginny Hourston 01381 600409

Find us on Facebook – Cromarty Open Gardens

And Open Studios!

Cromarty Open Studios is scheduled for the weekend of Saturday 24 June and Sunday 25 June, running from 11 am to 4 pm each day.

This year, a select group of artists and makers will participate, including Liz Hall (Paintings), Andrea Huntley (Linocut prints), Emma Nightingale (Glass), Jim Pennie (Woodturning), and Neil Thomson (Paintings).

An exciting addition to the Cromarty Open Studios weekend is the establishment of an open-air gallery along the front gate of Cromarty Primary School. This gallery will showcase the creative works of local pupils from Cromba Creative, ranging from P2 to P7. Cromba Creative is an innovative program of creative workshops driven by the principles of recycling and repurposing materials from the environment and the local community. These workshops, organised and led by local friends Andrea Huntley and JoJo, aim to inspire curiosity, nurture creativity, and support mental health. During the Open Studios weekend, the students will offer their beautifully original handmade crafts for sale, with proceeds going towards fundraising for their school. Don't miss the opportunity to explore and acquire these unique creations! For more information, you can visit their Facebook page here

Both Liz Hall and Emma Nightingale will be hosting short workshops during the weekend, focusing on Mixed Media and Glass, respectively. Limited spaces are available, so sign up soon to secure your spot. To register for the workshops, simply send a message to cromartyopenstudios@gmail.com. Please include your name, the number of places you require, your contact details, and specify which workshops you are interested in.

Emma Nightingale will be leading Glass Making workshops, where participants can enjoy the fun experience of creating colourful and artistic coasters or pendants. The cost of £30.00 per person covers all materials and firing. Workshops will be held from 9.30 am to 10.30 am and from 4.30 pm to 5.30 pm on both Saturday 24 June and Sunday 25 June.

Liz Hall will be hosting Time and Tide workshops on Saturday 24 June and Sunday 25 June from 9.30 am to 11.00 am. All you need to bring is a beach-find as a source of inspiration, or Liz can provide one if you don't have the time to find one yourself. All materials will be provided and the cost is £20.00 per person.

To secure your place in either of these workshops or if you require more information, please express your interest by messaging cromartyopenstudios@gmail.com. Spaces are limited and will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis. When registering, include your name, contact details (email and mobile), and specify whether you are interested in the Glass or Time and Tide workshop. Please use "COS Workshops" as the subject line in your message. If a workshop reaches maximum capacity, any additional participants will be placed on a waitlist. Children under the age of 12 must be accompanied by an adult. Prepare to be amazed by what you can achieve!

This promises to be an incredibly exciting weekend, filled with a vibrant creative atmosphere across Cromarty's studios and gardens. Let's hope the sun shines on us all!

Cromarty Courthouse

The Courthouse is one of 15 diverse Highland museums involved in the creation of a new innovative digital learning hub, called the Museum of the Highlands. Some 350 objects (35 from our museum) were chosen to explore themes, values, subjects and skills that teachers think are relevant to education today.

Over many months, we have been writing informative descriptions of the objects we submitted, as well as highlighting a variety of stories that deserve to be shared. Pictures were taken of all the objects by a professional photographer, who visited the Courthouse in November 2022. We also had a very positive response from Lord Carloway, the head of the judiciary in Scotland, who agreed to get involved in recording a series of videos for this project. He spent an afternoon in the museum in October 2022, talking about the various objects in the courtroom and the history of courts and justice, which has influenced the system we have today.

The website is offering new and exciting ways to delve into the history of the Scottish Highlands and as well as allowing users to discover the objects, it supports 200 free resources – including varied activities, games, reflection and debate to engage young people and their teachers with museum collections. We believe that this resource will have a wider audience and be of interest to many people from the Highlands and beyond.

A bonus for us is that the images and resources from our contribution are copyrighted to us and available for our own use elsewhere. This has been a great example of collaborative working and producing something that could not be done alone by a small independent museum.

Buzz around our garden!

We will be part of Cromarty Open Gardens again this year (weekend of 24 & 25 June). It's a great time to come and see our flower borders, wildflowers, community orchard and hopefully relax on a bench in the sunshine! This year we will also have the "Weaving Beelines" art trail around the garden and a wee corner of bee information, with some takeaways and bee activities for children.

The children of the St Regulus Garden Friday group have agreed to make a bug hotel for our garden to provide shelter for all sorts of insects and encourage biodiversity. We're looking forward to see what they come up with!

Raffle tickets still on sale

The draw for the Sir Thomas Urquhart Raffle to win a craft gin hamper (or other gin runners-up prizes) will take place in the Fishertown Inn on Sunday 25 June at 7.30pm. So, there's still plenty of time for you to get your tickets – on sale at Courthouse Museum, Royal Hotel, Fishertown Inn, Calluna, Post Office, Gardiner & Gardiner and Gallery 48. Buying tickets is a way to show your support for our voluntary run museum.

Cromarty Arts Trust

Another busy month ahead, and we are kicking off this Saturday night, 3 June, with a performance by Scottish singer-songwriter, Adam Holmes. Adam is a real star on the UK folk music scene, his most recent album, Hope Park went down a storm when it was launched at Celtic Connections this year. Adam is joined on stage by keyboard player Jennifer Austin, Orcadian Jen has performed with many great musicians, including FARA and Blazin' Fiddles. Don't miss it, it will be a great night up at the Stables! BYOB and tea and coffee available as usual. Tickets on the door or pre-book with the office or online.

If you have always wanted to learn to sing and are afraid you sound like a cat in pain, then come along to the Stables on Sunday 4 June. Experienced singing teacher and voice specialist Kate O'Connell is here for a full day of acapella singing, encouraging people to open up their natural voice and sing. Best of all, learning is by ear, so no musical experience is needed! Pre-book at the office or complete the booking form online. £40.

We are lucky to have artist Jonathan Shearer here to teach twice in June. He is teaching a full weekend of life drawing on 10 & 11 June and then another full weekend of landscape painting (out-doors as long as the weather permits it) on 24 & 25 June. Both weekends are small classes sizes and suitable for all levels, lunch at the Old Brewery is included and it's a real chance to focus on your art away from distractions.

Lastly Tim Palmer, Inverness-based amazing basket maker, is teaching a two-day bark basket workshop at the Stables over 10 & 11 June. This is a lovely introduction to using willow bark instead of rods to weave and shape a basket. £145 for two days.

The Caroline Hewat Art Prize will be awarded at Fortrose Academy on 15 June this year with the winner receiving a beautiful wooden carved trophy and a place on one of Jonathan Shearer's weekends.

All the details for performances and workshops are on the website as usual, www.cromartyartstrust.org.uk but here's a little summary.

June

3 – Adam Holmes with Jennifer Austin

4 – Sing for Joy, Singing Workshop with Kate O'Connell

10 & 11 – Life Drawing weekend with Jonathan Shearer

10 & 11 – Willow Bark Basket Making weekend with Tim Palmer

24 & 25 – Landscape Painting weekend with Jonathan Shearer

Cinema

Although it may not seem like Summer is here yet, your Cromarty Cinema June newsletter has arrived! This month we have a very busy schedule with a smorgasboard of treats for you film fans.

Back by popular demand, after a sold out screening earlier this year, is Lunana: A Yak in the Classroom. Also returning is National Theatre Live with the ever popular Fleabag. This gives you the opportunity to see Phoebe Waller-Bridge perform the play which inspired the smash-hit tv-show of the same name. To celebrate its 30th anniversary, we are screening Kieslowski's masterful Three Colours trilogy across our Sunday matinees.

June's volunteers' choice is Punch-Drunk Love; the classic romcom starring Adam Sandler. Speaking of romcoms, you can also see Jane Fonda and Diane Keaton in the hilarious Book Club: The Next Chapter.

For our international cinema lovers, we have Tunisian Under the Fig Trees, as well as Italian The Eight Mountains.

We are also screening the latest star-studded feature by Wes Anderson - Asteroid City - featuring the likes of Scarlett Johansson and Tom Hanks.

June's family-friendly and super entertaining feature - Are You There God? It's Me, Margaret, is based on the classic Judy Blume novel.

That's not all! For a full list of June's cinematic treats, check out the poster below. We look forward to warming your Summer in June.

Business Updates

Ecoventures

Ecoventures have been up and running for the 2023 season since the beginning of April and will be taking bookings seven days a week through until the end of October. Bookings can be made by visiting the website www.ecoventures.co.uk or you can pop into the office which will be open each day from 9am until 5pm.

If you have family, friends or guests coming to stay, then a trip out with us is a great way to spend the day. If you are a local b&b then you can pick up leaflets for your guests from our office. We also have a great range of sea life related gifts from tea towels and aprons to soft toys - please pop in and have a browse.

Slaughterhouse

Slaughterhouse Coffee is open Thursday to Monday from 9am til 3pm and is excited to welcome back our summer neighbour, Highland Ferries! Looking forward to another busy season. We aim to be open 7 days a week by the end of June, keep your eyes peeled on social media for specific dates.

If you're looking for a job, we're still needing an extra pair of hands from late July onwards. Part-time work with flexible hours/days depending on the applicant. Drop me an email at slaughterhousecoffee@gmail.com and we can discuss further!

Don't forget the Cromarty Open Gardens is on this month (Sat 24th & Sun 25th) and we can't wait! We'll be open all weekend and there's no better pairing than coffee and plants!"

Many thanks,

Laura Thompson

Emma Nightingale Glass

We had a very successful opening for the 2023 season on Sunday 21 May with many returning and new visitors taking the well trodden path up to the studio. In June we will be open on Sunday 4 June, Saturday 24 June, Sunday 25 June. Thereafter the studio will be open most Sundays from 12 noon – 4pm. It is always best to check our Facebook page for the latest opening days and hours.

We also open by appointment on a day and time that works for you. Message your request to us and we will get back to you with availability options.

During Cromarty Open Studios we will be launching a programme of glass making workshops. These will include an introduction to glass making, workshops through which you can build your skills (powders, part sheets, dropped vessels) and a Glass Club where you can put your learning into practice.

Message emma@emmanightingaleglass.co.uk to be one of the first to receive information, availability, dates and to book places.

We will be providing regular updates through the Cromarty Newsletter and on Facebook – keep an eye open for some exciting developments.....

We look forward to seeing you over the summer.....

The Walled Garden

The Walled Garden, Cromarty is now open for Pick Your Own (PYO). We will be open every Monday from 11am – 3 pm. We are hoping to also open on a Thursday and a Saturday. These two days will be subject to the availability of staff. Its always best to check our Facebook page where we will post regularly on opening days, times and produce availability.

For those of you that don't know where we are – the entrance is opposite the Bowling Green. If the gate is open its fine to come in and pick.....

Currently we have spinach, swiss chard, rocket and parsley available to pick. As the summer season progresses we will have other crops available including soft fruit.

Payment is by card and you will need to bring your own bags for the produce you pick.

Ingrid's House

Summer has definitely arrived at Ingrid's House. We have a full range of melamine picnic ware for eating alfresco. Fabulous sunglasses from Have a Look Denmark and gorgeous glassware for every kind of cool drink in the lovely weather.

Calluna

We opened our wee clothes shop 5 years ago in June! To celebrate, we are spending the month supporting local charities and with special offers. Follow us on FaceBook or Instagram to get a special offer every week. You can also check out our website at www.callunacromarty.co.uk. We kick off the special offers with 15% off all our summer dresses over the weekend.

The shop is stocked up for the summer with a lovely selection of dresses, shorts, t-shirts, sandals and, due in this week, wee white trainers and canvas ankle boots from a lovely French company.

Sutor Creek

We are now open 7 days a week 10am-8pm! Coffee, cake and deli from 10am and our seasonal menus and wood-fired pizzas from 12-8pm. Reservations available for evening tables -phone 01381 600 855. We only have a few tables so if you have family visiting over the summer it's better to book in advance.

Fishertown Inn

Our beer garden is open everyday and it's getting plenty of use already. We are open every day for lunch, and for evening meals Monday to Saturday. Teas, coffees and home baking are also available at any time.

We've welcomed many new members of staff this month to our ever increasing team, ready for a busy summer. We are also planning a few changes to the menu in line with the warmer weather and demand for quick bites.

As we get busier booking is highly recommended for lunch or dinner. This can be done by calling 01381 600988.

Our snug is a great place for meetings and this can be reserved by prior arrangement.

Cromarty Community Development Trust

AGM and Directors

A good turnout to hear our achievements last year and plans for the coming year. The presentations and accounts can be found here (see too the 'speaker notes' below each slide).

We have a new Board of Directors: Matt Hall is chair, Sheila Currie stays as Secretary; and newbies Fiona Deakin, Matt Grist and Stefano Pia join Fraser Mackenzie and Ronald Young. The job of the Board is to coordinate, steer and build the Trust, but not necessarily to be leading on every project or activity - we very much want more of what the Trust does to be led by the community and not just the Directors.

Collecting Picnic Benches

We have some flat pack picnic benches awaiting collection from Fettes Sawmill (see photo). Can someone with a van or trailer help us get them to Cromarty?

Weight (Total) = 0.26t

Height (Total) = 850mm

Width = 700mm

Length = 1800mm

Separate pack height = 250mm. Fettes say they have a forklift available Monday – Friday if it is easier to load that way otherwise it would need to be handballed on to the trailer.

Plants and Driftwood

We are getting to the point of landscaping the campsite. Does anyone have any sizeable driftwood that they might be interested in donating?

Maybe 2 or 3 parts of trees? Rather a couple of slightly larger pieces 1m or more than many small pieces. Happy to view ahead of time.

Also if anybody has any of the following would they consider donating them to the campsite (and in multiples if you can):

Rosemary plants, Lavender plants, Yellow broom, Flag irises (purple, deep red, orange - with colour identified please) (we have a job lot of yellow irises coming), Angelica, Eryngium (sea holly), Ladies mantle, Sea kale, Sedum.

In the unlikely event we don't plant them up we will return them for sale at the open gardens day later in June.

And finally...

A common thread running through much of this month's news - our natural environment and the way we care for it. As summer progresses and we have the chance to enjoy it more, let's be reminded not to take it for granted.
