NOTICE:

The Lady Dannatt, HM Lord-Lieutenant of Norfolk, has undertaken a project to offer a specially commissioned memorial plaque to each community to commemorate the resilience of communities during the recent time of the pandemic. Lady Dannatt has said, “I have heard of numerous inspirational stories of how communities have come together to support others and I very much wanted to mark this. Although the Parish Councils are the conduit, I should emphasise that the plaque is for your community as a whole.”

Before the start of the formal Council Meeting, Melinda Raker, Deputy Lieutenant, will present the Plaque to the Council Chairman, as a representative of the whole community.
